Every Week!!

Greetings!

Spring has finally sprung! We are loving the sunshine and are getting organized and ready for summer! Summer program registration for youth is going on right now! Don't wait to register! Orders need to be made for supplies and space is limited! We have 13 youth programs this summer and don't forget, our watercolor and oil painting classes are offered year around!

Studio Open All Summer

WALK INS WELCOME!

Don't forget our pottery painting studio is open all summer long! We have lots of techniques we can show you for you to create your own masterpiece! And it's not just pottery! We have door hangers to replace that Christmas wreath (we hope that is down by now). Flip flops, cupcakes, stars, crosses, home plates and lots of ideas to inspire you! Glass fusion, string art, mosaics, canvas or umbrella painting....all waiting for you to create! Friends or relatives in town and you are looking for something to do? Too windy to enjoy the outside? Raining? The weather is perfect inside our studio! Not to mention that art activities reduce stress and anxiety and increase positive emotions! All ages welcome! It's a cool and refreshing break from the heat and refreshes you for your next task!

Contact us for more information or group events.

David Becker 3 day watercolor workshop

This workshop is for beginners to intermediate. Everyone will take away something from this workshop to help them have better control with their watercolor paintings. Registration and payment is required by May 15th in order to take advantage of this amazing opportunity to have David Becker here in Le Mars! June 5, 6, and 7. $275/person. Call 712-546-7476 for more information or to register.

Brent Herrig – Photography Exhibit

This is the last month to see the exhibit by Brent Herrig, Spoonfuls of Inspiration! Stop in to see this stunning exhibit and read the descriptions for each photo! You won't be disappointed. In addition to his Spoon exhibit in our North Gallery, he also has photography from his international travels in our South Gallery. As of May 1, marking the ½ way point of his exhibit, all the exhibit pieces from his international travels are HALF PRICE!! That takes most to just $150! Did you see one you liked when you were in? Stop back and get your favorite for HALF PRICE! We are also offering 15% off of prints ordered from his Spoonfuls of Inspiration exhibit pieces.

Coming Exhibit

Randi Mackey and Family

This exhibit will feature artwork from multiple family members including photography and 2D art including watercolors and colored pencils. Reception will be June 16th following the parade.

Raku Pottery Firing Demonstration

Following the Ice Cream Days parade on June 16, on the North side of our building, from 10 – 2pm we will again have Paul Adamson here with his Raku Firing demonstration. If you would like to reserve a pot to glaze and watch go thru the firing, give us a call! A limited number will be available.

Did you Know?

Did you know that by doing art activities it improves motor skills for ALL ages!? Many times we just think about this for small children, but it is also very important as we age to maintain these skills!

Don't wait to sign up for Summer Art Camps!

Camps during the week are held in the mornings and range in price from $30 to $50 for all 4 days! These camps never disappoint with great projects and lots of fun! Mrs B will have "America" week, "Farm Life" week and "Tropical Paradise, The Sequel" week. Pete and Julia Licht will also be back with lots of messy and fun art!

New this year, Saturday Day camps!

With the addition of Shelby to our staff, we are offering fun camps one Saturday each month with great themes!

Saturday themes are "America", "Robots" and "Mystical Magical". Space is limited in all of our camps! Register and pay thru our website, stop in or give us a call!
